Introduction

As a member of HPSM, you can get language interpreter services at no cost. Information on how to get interpretation services can be found below:

Language Help

Our Member Services staff speak English, Spanish, Chinese, and Tagalog. For other languages, we can help you through our free telephone interpreter service. If you have questions, concerns, or need help choosing or changing a provider, please call Member Services.

Interpreting Services

If you need an interpreter to go with you to your provider's office, we have interpreters in most languages as well as in American Sign Language—and it's free! You do not have to use a family member, friend, or child as an interpreter. Ask your provider office or medical group to schedule an interpreter when you make your appointment or call Member Services for more information.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

The ADA prohibits discrimination based on disability and protects Members with disabilities from discrimination concerning public services, programs, and activities.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 states that no qualified disabled person shall be excluded, based on disability, from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity which receives or benefits from Federal financial assistance.

HPSM complies with both the ADA and Section 504. Members enrolled in HPSM are entitled to full and equal access to covered services, including members with disabilities.

List of Network Providers

The Provider Directory shows what languages the provider and office staff speaks. Consider picking a provider that speaks your language. If you can't find a provider that speaks your preferred language, you can use an interpreter at your medical appointments for free. If you have questions about using an interpreter, please call Member Services for more information.

If you need help choosing a Primary Care Provider (PCP) or medical group, call Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 or 650-616-2133 (TTY: 1-800-735-2929 or dial 7-1-1) Information printed in the provider directory is subject to change. For the most recent information, visit hpsm.org/choose-a-provider.

2025 Health Plan of San Mateo (HPSM) Provider Directory

This Directory of Medi-Cal's network provider lists:

- Health care professionals such as primary care providers (PCP), specialists; and
- Facilities such as hospitals, nursing facilities, skilled nursing facilities, mental health facilities, clinics, and pharmacies; and
- Support providers such as adult day services, assisted living, consumer-directed services, home-delivered meals, and home health agencies.

You may receive services from any of the providers in this Directory. For some services, you may need an authorization approval from your PCP or HPSM.

For more information on how to pick a PCP or change your PCP, please see Section 3, pages 11–13 of the Medi-Cal Evidence of Coverage.

Referrals to Specialty Doctors

You may need a referral to see a specialist or someone that is not your PCP. A referral means that your network PCP must give you approval before you can see the other provider.

Your PCP may decide to refer you to a doctor who is a Specialist so that you can get care for a specific medical condition. Most covered services that are not provided by your PCP, such as specialty services, non-emergency hospital services, laboratory and x-ray services, must be approved in advance by your PCP. Your PCP will refer you to an HPSM specialist doctor, hospital, or other HPSM provider from whom you may receive services. If there is not an HPSM provider available to perform the medical service you need, your PCP will ask HPSM to refer you to a non-HPSM provider for the services. HPSM may not cover the service if you don't get a referral.

For more information on referrals and treatment authorization requests (TARs), please see Section 4, pages 18–19 of the Medi-Cal Evidence of Coverage.

Member Notice

Some providers and hospitals do not provide one or more of the following services:

- Family planning
- Contraceptive services, including emergency contraception
- Sterilization, including tubal ligation at the time of labor and delivery
- Infertility treatments
- Abortion

When necessary, please confirm with the provider that the above services are provided. If you need help with the referral process, please call Member Services. Please note that the information contained in this Directory can change without notice.

Enhanced Care Management (ECM) and Community Supports (CS) require prior authorization and are limited to members who meet specific eligibility criteria.

We Want to Hear from You

The Provider Directory is updated frequently; however, there may be incorrect or new information about a provider that has not yet been updated. If you find an error in the Directory, please let HPSM know so we can make corrections.

If any information in this Provider Directory appears to be wrong, please call Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 (toll free) or 650-616-2133 or send an email to providerdirectories@hpsm.org.

Our duty to make sure members get culturally inclusive care

Culturally inclusive care is much more than making sure you have equal access to health care and are treated equally. It also means listening closely to you and knowing the role that culture, race and identity may play in getting healthcare. The list of providers has details about languages spoken in offices and clinics by providers and staff to help make both your health care experience and medical results better. Look for the  in each provider listing to see the languages spoken in the office/clinic. You can also find providers' race and ethnicity in the Member Portal (www.hpsm.org/member-portal-login) or by calling Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 (TTY: dial 7-1-1).

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

HPSM is committed to protecting your health information, which is any information about:

- Your past or present physical or mental health.
- Any payments for health services that can be identified with you as an individual.

Examples of health information include your name, date of birth, diagnoses, medical treatments, medical claims, race, ethnicity, language, gender identity and sexual orientation.

This notice summarizes HPSM's privacy practices and your rights as an HPSM member regarding your health information. It explains:

- How HPSM protects your health information in accordance with state and federal law.
- How HPSM can legally use and disclose your health information. ("Use" refers to how we share information within HPSM. "Disclose" refers to sharing information outside of HPSM.)
- How you can access your health information.

This notice only covers HPSM's privacy practices. Your provider may have different policies regarding their use and disclosure of your health information created in their office.

If you have questions about this notice, call HPSM Member Services at 1-800-750-4776. Hours are Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. HPSM CareAdvantage members should call 1-866-880-0606. Hours are Monday through Sunday, 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Members with hearing or speech impairments can call the California Relay Service (CRS) at 1-800-735-2929 or 711.

This notice is effective as of: 10/1/2024

HPSM's legal requirements regarding health information

We are required by law to:

- Maintain security and privacy of electronic and written information, including physical, technical, and administrative procedures to prevent unauthorized access to your protected health information.
- Make sure that health information that identifies you is kept private.
- Give you this privacy practices notice.
- Follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

How we may use or disclose your health information

State and federal law allow HPSM to use and disclose our members' health information without written authorization. Below is a list of the types of health information and examples of uses and/or disclosures. It does not include every possible allowable use and disclosure. It is not intended to limit uses and disclosures that are permitted by law. However, every way we can use and disclose your health information will fall into one or another of these types.

If you need help choosing a Primary Care Provider (PCP) or medical group, call Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 or 650-616-2133 (TTY: 1-800-735-2929 or dial 7-1-1) Information printed in the provider directory is subject to change. For the most recent information, visit hpsm.org/choose-a-provider.

- Payment for health services. We review your health information before approving payment for a treatment your provider has asked for to make sure that it is medically necessary.
- Improving HPSM operations. We may use members' health information to review our providers' performance and compare the quality of our services with that of other health plans.
- Care management. Sharing your health information with your providers allows us to review your treatments and medications to make sure they do not conflict with each other.
- Resource referrals. We may identify and recommend HPSM benefits, services and/or programs based on your health information.
- Contractors who assist in our operations. Contractors agree to keep health information confidential and secure, and to only use it to assist us. For example, we contract with a "Pharmacy Benefit Manager" and provide them with the information they need to pay our members' pharmacy claims.
- Health insurance program sponsors. Employers and other organizations contract with HPSM so that we can provide health care services and pay claims. They agree to keep health information confidential and secure, and to only use it to assist us. If you have a plan sponsor, we may notify them when you enroll in or disenroll from our plan. We may also disclose your health information so the sponsor can audit HPSM's performance.
- Family members or individuals involved in your care or payment for your care. We may release your health information to family members or others who pay for your health care. We would do this if it is necessary to enable them to pay for your care or make decisions about your care. We only disclose your health information if you are present and agree to it, except when:
 - Your medical condition prevents you from making decisions and we believe that disclosing your information would be in your best interest.
 - After your death (unless you tell us beforehand not to share your information).
- Schools. A school may be legally required to have proof of immunization for a student enrolling or enrolled in the school. In those cases, we may provide the school with that student's immunization record.

Special Situations

We disclose health information about you:

- When required by federal, state or local law.
- To avoid a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of others. We would only disclose the information to someone who can help prevent the threat.
- If you are a member of the armed forces or a veteran as required by military authorities or to assist in determining your eligibility for veteran's benefits.
- If you are in custody of a correctional institution as part of coordinating your care.
- To programs that provide workers compensation and other benefits for work-related injuries or illness.
- For public health activities, such as:
 - Preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability.
 - Reporting child abuse or neglect.
 - Reporting births or deaths.
 - Reporting reactions to medications or problems with products.
 - Notifying you of recalls of products you may be using.
 - Notifying you if you may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease.
 - Notifying the appropriate government authority if we believe you are the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only disclose this if you agree or when authorized by law.

- To health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law. For example, we may disclose your health information to the public agency responsible for overseeing HPSM's operations. These activities are necessary to enable the government to monitor the health care system and government health benefit programs.
- For lawsuits and disputes if ordered by a court, tribunal, subpoena or other lawful process. We only do this after unsuccessful efforts to notify you of the request or obtain an order protecting the information requested.
- To law enforcement officials in limited circumstances (i.e., if the official requests it or to report criminal conduct). Generally, this would have to be in connection with a criminal investigation, court order, warrant or legally authorized national security activity.
- To assist in a military mission or other governmental activity related to intelligence, national security or protecting the President.
- To coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors so they can perform their duties after members are deceased.
- To organ transplant organizations working on organ or tissue transplantation for the purposes of facilitating a transplant.
- 50 years after death. We may disclose the health information of members who are deceased to any agency after the member has been deceased for at least 50 years.
- To disaster relief organizations. If you do not want us to disclose your information for disaster relief, you have the right to prevent such sharing.

The previous examples are all subject to the prohibitions and conditions we explain below related to reproductive health care.

Legal limitations

We comply with laws that may limit or prevent the disclosures listed above. For example:

- There are special limits on disclosing health information about HIV/AIDS status, mental health treatment, developmental disabilities, and drug and alcohol abuse treatment.
 - We will not use or disclose the records we receive subject to 42 C.F.R. Part 2, or testimony relaying the content of such records, in civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceedings against you unless we have your written consent or a court order, after notice and an opportunity to be heard in court is provided to you. Any court order we receive for a use or disclosure of these records must be accompanied by a subpoena or other legal obligation before we may use or disclose the record.
- Information about race, ethnicity, language, gender identity and sexual orientation cannot be used in underwriting, rate setting, denial of services, coverage and benefit determinations.
- We cannot sell your information.

Authorization

Other than the situations described above, we do not allow use and disclosure of your health information without your written permission or authorization. For example, we may use and share health information about you for research purposes only if we have your authorization. Your decision to grant us an authorization will not affect your medical treatment, health plan benefits, payment for treatment or enrollment eligibility. You have the right to revoke your authorization even after you have signed an authorization for use or release of your health information. In that case, we would no longer use or disclose your health information for that purpose. However, we cannot reverse any disclosures we made during the time we had your permission to do so.

- Uses and disclosures related to reproductive health care. Unless we have received an authorization from you, we are prohibited from disclosing your health information when the request is made by someone other than you or your personal representative for either of the following activities ("Prohibited Purposes"):
 - To conduct a criminal, civil, or administrative investigation into or impose criminal, civil, or administrative liability on any person for the mere act of seeking, obtaining, providing, or facilitating reproductive health care, where such health care is lawful under the circumstances in which it is provided.
 - The identification of any person for the purpose of conducting such investigation or imposing such liability.

If you need help choosing a Primary Care Provider (PCP) or medical group, call Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 or 650-616-2133 (TTY: 1-800-735-2929 or dial 7-1-1) Information printed in the provider directory is subject to change. For the most recent information, visit hpsm.org/choose-a-provider.

For example, we may receive a subpoena requesting a member's records, and the subpoena was issued in a case seeking to prosecute a provider for prescribing a medication that could terminate a pregnancy or impact fertility, or to prosecute a member for taking such medication. In that situation, if the prescription or ingestion of that medication was lawful under the circumstances, we are prohibited from providing any PHI in response to the request.

If we receive a request for records from someone other than you or your personal representative, and the requested records contain PHI that potentially relates to reproductive health care, we are required to obtain an attestation from the requestor if the request is for any of the following purposes:

- Health oversight activities
- Judicial and administrative proceedings
- Law enforcement purposes
- Disclosures to coroners and medical examiners

The attestation must include specific information about the request, a statement that the request is not for any of the Prohibited Purposes, a statement that an individual signing an attestation known to be false is subject to criminal penalties under federal law, and it must be signed by the requestor. We are prohibited from responding to requests that require an attestation if the attestation does not meet all legal requirements.

For example, we may receive a subpoena requesting a member's records from state law enforcement officials related to the criminal prosecution of an individual accused of submitting false claims to insurance companies, unrelated to reproductive health care. While the purpose of the investigation is not a Prohibited Purpose, the records requested contain PHI potentially related to reproductive health care, such as claims paid for pregnancy-related conditions. In that situation, we will require the law enforcement official to provide a valid, signed attestation before we will respond to the request.

Even where we receive a valid attestation, we will still ensure that the request satisfies all requirements under federal law before we disclose any PHI.

Note that there is a potential that information disclosed to third parties may no longer be protected by HIPAA, and those third parties could re-disclose your information.

Your rights regarding your health information

You have the right to:

- Get a paper copy of this privacy notice. You can also get this notice on our website at www.hpsm.org/privacy-policy.
- Assign someone to represent you. You can give someone medical power of attorney, which allows that person to act on your behalf and make choices about your health information. This right also applies if you have a legal guardian. We will take reasonable steps to confirm that anyone who claims to represent you has this authority before we take any action.
- Request restrictions or limits on the use or disclosure of your health information. In your request, you must tell us:
 - What health information you want to limit.
 - Whether you want to limit our use of information, disclosure of information, or both.
 - To whom you want the limits to apply.
- Control information about sensitive services you receive. Sensitive services include mental health counseling, reproductive health services, sexually transmitted disease services, sexual assault services and drug treatment. Those who are of the age and capacity to consent to these services are not required to get anyone's authorization to get them or submit a claim on their behalf.
- Request confidential communications. You have the right to request that we contact you about medical matters (including sensitive services) privately and with special handling. We will then not give your specified information to anyone without your written permission.

- You can ask us to send communications about medical matters or sensitive services to another mailing address, email address or telephone number that you choose. If you do not provide another contact method, we will send communications to you at the address or telephone number we have on file.
- We will honor your requests to get confidential communications in the form and format you asked for. Or we will make sure your communications are easy to put in the form and format you asked for.
- Your request for confidential communications lasts until you cancel it or submit a new request for confidential communications.
- We will not ask you for the reason for your request. While we will make every effort to accommodate reasonable requests, we are not required to agree to requests. If we do agree, we will comply unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

To request confidential communications or special handling in the way you are contacted, you must mail a written request to HPSM's Privacy Officer.

- An accounting of disclosures. You have the right to request a list of disclosures that we made of your health information. The list does not include some disclosures, such as those made for your treatment, payment for your care, and our operations. It also does not include most other disclosures that we are required or permitted to make without your authorization (such as governmental agencies that review our programs or disclosures you authorize us to make). To request an accounting of disclosures, mail a written request to HPSM's Privacy Officer. Your request must only include dates within the last six years of the date of your request.

Mail written requests to HPSM's Privacy Officer at:
Health Plan of San Mateo
Attn: Privacy Officer
801 Gateway Boulevard, Suite 100
South San Francisco, California 94080

- Access your health information.
- Subject to certain exceptions, you have the right to view or get a copy of your PHI that we maintain in records relating to your care or decisions about your care or payment for your care. To request a copy summary, or explanation of this health information, mail a written request to HPSM's Privacy Officer. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- In limited situations, we may deny some or all of your request to access these records, but if we do, we will tell you why in writing and explain your right, if any, to have our denial reviewed. by someone other than the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.
- Receive notice of a breach. A breach is when protected health information is obtained, used or revealed in a way that violates relevant privacy laws. We are required to send you a notice that explains:
 - What happened.
 - The types of information involved in the breach.
 - Steps you should take to protect your information.
 - What HPSM is doing to investigate the situation, minimize harm to you and prevent future breaches.

If you need help choosing a Primary Care Provider (PCP) or medical group, call Member Services at 1-800-750-4776 or 650-616-2133 (TTY: 1-800-735-2929 or dial 7-1-1) Information printed in the provider directory is subject to change. For the most recent information, visit hpsm.org/choose-a-provider.

- Amend incorrect or incomplete health and claims records. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as we maintain the information. A written comment will then be added to your health information at HPSM. To request an amendment, mail a written request to HPSM's Privacy Officer specifying the inaccurate or incorrect health information and reason or evidence that supports your request.
 - If we deny your request to amend your health information, we will tell you why and explain your right to file a written statement of disagreement.. You must clearly tell us in writing if you want us to include your statement in future disclosures we make of that part of your record. We may include a summary instead of your statement.

To learn more about your privacy rights, visit the California Department of Health Services website at www.dhcs.ca.gov/formsandpubs/laws/priv/Pages/NoticeofPrivacyPractices.aspx.

You will be notified of changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this notice then make it effective for all health information we already have about you as well as any we receive in the future. We will notify you of changes to this notice by mail within 60 days of the changes. We will also post a copy of the most current notice on our website at www.hpsm.org/privacy-policy.

How to file a grievance regarding your privacy rights

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a grievance with HPSM. You will not be penalized for filing a grievance. You may also contact the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to file a complaint.
